GW's bassist, Scott Snyder, has taken his tattoo art to the bit-less-permanent medium of wearable art - custom clothing. Each piece is an individualized hand painted and embellished work of art. Most often his work is done on his clients' favorite pair of jeans or jacket, and is created exclusively for the client, incorporating their interests and tastes.

A new website has been created to begin showcasing his art and his clients who own it. Go to ScottSnyderBodyDesigns.com for more information.
